

Mercedes-Benz Corporate Programme.

Be rewarded for the company you keep.

Mercedes-Benz

For people who appreciate an exclusive opportunity.

Some clubs offer you special incentives. Others offer exclusive benefits. And some clubs let you rub shoulders with people of influence and high standing.

The Mercedes-Benz Corporate Programme offers its members all this and more; corporate pricing, after sales benefits and first access to news and exclusive opportunities.

If you work in a Top 500 company, or for a company that owns a fleet of five or more luxury vehicles, we think you've earned the privilege.

And recognise a culture of excellence.

When you own a Mercedes-Benz, you become a part of a culture of excellence. It's what defines us and makes us a leader in our field.

It's a culture that has produced thousands of patents; from innovations that make you safer or more comfortable, to engineering feats that make the car faster, smarter, more efficient, while having less impact on the environment.

So if you're already a good corporate citizen, we can reward you with the following when you join our culture of excellence:

Preferential pricing¹ on new vehicles and options;

Reduced Dealer Delivery Fee¹ including complimentary carpet floor mats;

Complimentary scheduled servicing at authorised Mercedes-Benz dealerships for 3 years or 50,000km (whichever comes first);
